Description

Antique Omega full hunter pocket watch, 1912. The watch has a stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed with the Omega name and it has the serial number 4,118,860 which dates it back to 1912. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 52mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is gold plated and it has the early Omega logo inside the case back. The case has engine turned detail to both front and back, and a vacant cartouche to the front. The condition is good, just age related wear to the detailing. The winding crown pushes in to open the front cover. Inside, there a glass lens which is in good condition (some white reflection showing in the photos). The dial has a couple of short faint hairlines but not too detrimental at all. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
