Description

A 19th century agateware kitchen prep bowl with a handle rest possibly for a rolling pin? The surface has a lovely marblised design with a cartouche to the front with MRS Harper 1895. There is a tiny line to the bottom of one of the lugs (please see picture) , it looks like a small crack although it might just be a firing crack, there isn't any hair line cracks, there are a few chips around the rim, commensurate with age. Overall its in very good condition and is a lovely piece of folk art pottery.
