Description

An exceptional bronze sculpture portrays a fierce tiger with its mouth open, seemingly roaring. The tiger is reclining on a setting of foliage, with two cubs playfully interacting with it. The sculpture is beautifully detailed, capturing the muscular structure of the tiger and the playful nature of the cubs. The bronze has a rich, dark patina, enhancing its appeal and realism. This dramatic piece is signed on the back by A. Vannetti, an Italian sculptor known for his detailed and expressive bronze sculptures. Vannetti's works are highly regarded for their craftsmanship and artistic quality.
