Description

Mid 19th Century child ash and elm Windsor arm chair with comb back. The seat is scooped and shaped, the arms supported on turned ash supports. The chair stands on 4 turned legs with cross stretcher. Measuring 72 cm in height and with a seat width of 34 cm, this chair is perfect for children or that lovable teddy or doll, a great place to display them. The chair does have a few ancient worm holes, long gone. Also, an old small repair which I've left as I believe it speaks of its history and longevity. Delivery to UK mainland only Free included in the price.
