Description

These are amazing - a set of four solid sterling silver and enamel menu holders dating from the start of WW1. They are all hallmarked for Birmingham 1914 with the maker's mark of Levi & Salaman. 'United We Stand' was a popular patriotic motto which appeared on brooches, stamps, scarfs and many other items. These are the flags of The British Empire, France, Russia and Belgium. The enamel appears to be in excellent condition throughout. There is a small amount of soldering on the French menu holder but otherwise the silver is also good. The box appears to be original and is tatty. Dimensions: Height: 2.5cm Width: 4.5cm Depth: 3cm Complimentary gift wrapping is available on request. Post and packaging are free within the UK. Overseas buyers please e-mail for postage costs and please note: Import duties, taxes, and charges are not included in the item price or shipping cost. These charges are the buyer's responsibility. Please check with your country's customs office to determine what these additional costs will be prior to buying.
