Description

A magnificent late 19th-century display cabinet in mahogany showcases exceptional craftsmanship and timeless elegance. This exquisite piece features intricate inlay work throughout, highlighting the quality and attention to detail. It stands on decorative tapered legs that enhance its sophisticated profile. The cabinet includes two astral-glazed cabinets on either side, each with two fixed shelves, offering ample space for display. The central section features a blind door cabinet with a single fixed shelf inside, providing additional storage. The cabinet comes with a key and exhibits a gorgeous grain and rich colour, emphasising its superior quality. Its thoughtful design and solid construction ensure both beauty and functionality. In good solid condition, this display cabinet is a stunning addition to any setting. Please review the photos for more details and feel free to reach out with any questions!
