Description

A very fine 19th Century mahogany hall or console table in the manner of Adams, exceptionally well hand carved with beautifully rich patination and grain and of fabulous quality. The well figured, moulded top of demi-lune form with a gorgeous foliate motif border trim is raised over a simple and panelled, deep frieze with exquisite garlands of bell husks and applied flowerhead paterae throughout, finely hand carved in low relief. Supported on elegantly tapering and panelled square leg with further bell husk and flower head motif detail, terminating on spade foot. Mahogany Type: 'Santos Mahogany'

Internal Ref: A3366
