Description

A large and good quality Iranian Qashqai rug dating from the early to mid 20th Century. It has a traditional design of floral motifs surrounding a central lozenge with geometric borders on a deep red ground with blue and terracotta highlights. It has unusual pale blue horse motifs on both sides of the rug, representing the horse heads of Persepolis. It is a very good quality piece with a heavy weave. It is woollen and has been hand woven. It is in very good condition for its age. There are some minor signs of age and use, some wear and slight fading in places but no major damages and it displays well with rich colours. Approximate Size : 244cm x 167cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £30
