Description

Beautiful art deco period jadeite earrings set in 9ct gold with screw backs fittings which can be converted for a small fee to pins if required, please enquire. These lovely jadeite earrings were very popular in the early jazz age, and it is easy to understand why, they add a wonderful pop of colour to any outfit, think of 1920-1930 Shanghai, many of these were made for the export market in china during this period. High art deco with geometric shapes, very beautiful and timeless glamour. The earrings are marked for 9ct gold, I can as mentioned convert these to pierced fittings it would be no trouble at all, just for the cost of the pins and the time for the work.
