Description

A lovely Victorian gold cross pendant adorned with five vivid blue turquoise cabochons. The cross was originally a mechanical pencil, at the back you can see the inner section which would have slid down to reveal the lead, although this does not now move. SIZE: Approximately 3.5 x 1.6cm, 4cm long including the bail. WEIGHT: 2.2g. MATERIALS: Nine-carat gold, turquoise. Some of the innards, ie the pencil clutch mechanism, are metal. HALLMARKS/STAMPS: None found. CONDITION: In very good antique condition, although the pencil section is stuck inside. ERA: Estimated Victorian (c.1837-1901).
