Description

This is an antique dressing table box. An English, rosewood mirrored boudoir vanity case, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. Superb casework with a charming suite of fitted glassware. Displays a desirable aged patina throughout. Select stocks present fine grain interest and rich caramel hues. Twelve pieces of glassware with a clear, bright appearance. Inset working lock to the fascia — key present. Attractive case opens to reveal the lined and ebonised interior. Original mirror plate to lid reverse with a desirable, light foxing. Small clasp pivots the mirror forward to access a concertina document slide. Each of the twelve glassware pieces sit neatly within a velvet lining. Presents a powder box, comb box, lidded pots and two glass bottles. All intact but for one bottle, displaying a crack to the base. Several pieces topped with engraved silver plated lids. Concealed jewellery tray to the right hand side, held closed with a brass pin. This is a delightful antique dressing table box, with an attractive appearance and charming arrangement of glassware and storage. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
