Description

Pair of Georgian Demi Lune Console Tables - later hand painted • English Georgian Period • Later hand painted with Specialist Mottled Finish • Faux Marble design to the top using tones in greys and whites • Reeded edge to the tops • Hand painted using Antique White colour to the base • Four tapering legs with classical spade foot • H: 74cm (29.1") W: 122cm (48") D: 60cm (23.6") This very attractive pair of later hand painted Georgian Demi Lune Console Tables are in excellent condition to enter any setting. They are wonderful examples of Demi Lune Console Tables from the Georgian era and have been updated with a Specialist Mottled Paint Antiqued and Distressed Finish; this is applied to the entire table using an Antique White background and the tops have a faux marble paint finish using tones in greys and whites. The proportions are pleasing and the tables stand well on their four square tapered legs with the classical spade foot which is a clear indicator of their Georgian origin. We mix our palette of paint colours from those used within the Georgian era and also from various periods within Continental Europe, mixed according to our traditional recipe and applied...
