A stunning antique burr walnut display cabinet, made in England and dating from around the 1920's. This is of superb quality, it is beautifully made with absolutely gorgeous burr walnut grain patterns and colour tones. There are two removable glass shelves in the upper glass cabinet, there is a single drawer in the middle and a good amount of storage space in the lower section. The lower section has canted and reeded edges, it sits on bracket feet. We have had this recently stripped and re-polished to a high standard, the condition is excellent for its age.
