Description

A smart and very well made antique Edwardian mahogany coffee table. This was made in England, it dates from around the 1900-1910 period. It is a useful size and is of lovely quality, with intricate and detailed carving around the edges. The top has serpentine shaped sides and a raised pie crust edge. This stands on cabriole legs with lovely curves, terminating in scrolled feet. We have had this recently re-polished, the condition is excellent for its age, with just some minor wear remaining beneath the polish here and there.
