Description

This Good Quality Inlaid Satinwood Writing Desk in the Sheraton Revival Style, offers practicality along with refined elegance. The five free running drawers are of a good long length offering plentiful storage. The finely figured Satinwood veneer, glistening like a jewel in the light, additionally benefits from contrasting crossbanding and decorative inlaid lines. The tapered legs terminate in a brass castor that ties in so well with the finely cast brass drop handles and works nicely with the rich warm hue of the Satinwood. The dark red tooled hide top offers a good-sized area for working on. This Writing Desk would make a stylish addition to any room, whilst offering a practical working solution. Supplied with working key. Circa 1910 Dimensions Width 51in/130cm Depth 24in/61cm Height 30½in/77cm Knee hole Height 24in/62cm
