Description

This exquisite Victorian rosewood work table is in excellent condition, featuring a gracefully serpentine top and a single drawer. The table boasts an attractive striped fabric storage basket, standing on barley twist supports that terminate in carved cabriole legs with original castors, united by a barley twist stretcher. While it bears the charming imperfections typical of antiques, this solid table showcases deep, rich colouring and a stunning patina. Its neat proportions and timeless beauty make it a wonderfully attractive addition to any room.
