Description

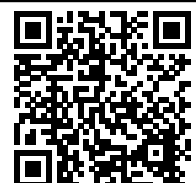

This is an antique fold-over card table. An English, rosewood games or console table, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820. Superb craftsmanship distinguishes this fine gentleman's card table. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select stocks present attractive grain interest throughout. Deep russet and caramel hues beneath a quality wax polish finish. Rotating through 90-degrees, the table opens out to reveal the playing surface. The green baize presents a splendid fit and an invitingly tactile finish. Beneath the folding top, a useful card box sits within the stout apron section. Raised upon a gently tapered support, accentuated with bold collared detail. The base of distinctive hyperboloid form with a deep profile. Standing upon a quartet of stout bun feet. This is a striking antique fold-over card table, offering the finest gentleman's club gaming appeal and superior craftsmanship. Sure to enhance any room, this games table offers wonderful grain interest, colour and finish. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready to enjoy.
