Description

This is a good early 20th Century walnut framed bergere armchair in excellent condition dating from around 1930. The chair has been beautifully upholstered in a lovely colourful chinoiserie style Italian upholstery fabric by Colony called "Arabesque". The sumptuous feather filled cushions are edged with rich fluffy tasselled borders. The bergere work is double caned to the swept arms and the frame has an attractive curved back and stout carved cabriole legs. This price is for the purchase of the chair only but we also have the matching sofa (photographed here) listed for sale in our other stock items. The chair measures 74 cms in length 98 cms high by 80 cms deep. The seat is 48 cms high with the cushion measuring 54 cms wide by 60 cms deep. We do also have the other chair to this suite currently for sale which has not been reupholstered. Do see our other items if interested. The fabric is still available from Abitant.co.uk should you want to consider having it upholstered onto match. UK delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £60 plus vat to most destinations.
