Description

A superb decent sized English solid cast sterling silver miniature yacht / sailing boat. It is hallmarked for London 1967 with the maker being Edward Barnard & Sons Ltd. It has been wonderfully designed and is in superb condition being free from dings and repairs - please note the front sail has come away from the deck at the two anchor points (see final photos) but is stable being attached to the mast (easy to repair). It measures approx. 4.25 inches (10.8cm) long across the base by 1.5 inches (4cm) wide across the base by 6.25 inches (15.8cm) tall and weighs a very impressive 382 grams. A superbly made piece.
