Description

A very rare pair of 19th Century well figured, mahogany marble top console tables, finely hand carved and of exceptional quality with gorgeously rich patination and fine grain. The stunning moulded, serpentine Carrara White marble top of rectangular form is raised over a shaped, deep frieze with a beautifully detailed centred arrangement of cabochons, ruffles, c-scrolls and trailing acanthus leaf motif detail. Supported on slender, tapering and moulded cabriole legs with a further fabulous arrangement of cabochons, ruffles and acanthus leaf motifs, terminating on bun foot. Mahogany Type: 'Santos Mahogany'
