Description

A rare Victorian Scottish silver and agate bangle. Made in Scotland around 1880 probably in Edinburgh. It has 12 hand cut agates of varying colours and has beautiful Celtic engraving either end of the row of agates. It closes by way of a tight spring clip and overall the bangle is in excellent condition with no damage or repairs. A very wearable piece of high quality Scottish jewellery. WEIGHT; 25grams approx. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months
