Description

A superb pair of Georgian Sterling Silver Corinthian candlesticks. They have a stepped square base embellished with a broad gadroon decorated border. The pierced decorated capitals are ornamented with acanthus leaf and scroll decoration. The candlesticks are crafted in solid silver (they are not filled) and they retain their original hallmarked sconces. They are both clearly hallmarked for London, 1762 although the maker's mark has worn. They are a good large size and the pair weigh approximately 1217g. They are in very good condition for their age. There are no major damages and they display beautifully. There are some faint surface marks and small knocks and minor dings commensurate with age but nothing detrimental. They have been gently cleaned and polished and are ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
