Description

A late 19th-century mahogany chest on chest, designed with an elegant serpentine front in the timeless Georgian style. Its commanding height, sweeping front profile, and warm tones make it a beautiful statement piece for a principal bedroom, a spacious dressing room, or a grand hallway. The chest is configured in two traditional sections, offering storage across a total of eight drawers. The upper portion holds five graduating drawers, while the base section houses three generously sized drawers, with each front displaying a graceful serpentine curve and quality mahogany grain matching that highlights the fine cabinet making of the late Victorian era. The piece is in great condition. It is ready for immediate use in the home. Dimensions: * Height: 175.5 cm * Width: 83.5 cm * Depth: 54.5cm
