Description

This is an antique Berber tea table. A Middle Eastern, brass and teak folding campaign occasional table, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920. Striking example, with brilliant colour and eye-catching detail. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout. Quality brass top with bright golden tones and pressed detail. Folding hexagonal frame crafted in teak, with deep russet hues. Relief foliate pattern accentuates the wide top, graced with a wavy edge form. Fascinating flower-shaped serving well to the table centre. Each leg and stretcher rail adorned with carved flowerheads. Lobe detail decorates the stretcher rail for further visual interest. Pairs of legs rotating away on a central axis for ease of stowing. This is a distinctive antique Berber tea table, pleasingly ornate and of generous proportion. Versatile with a two piece form, the frame folding away when not in use. Delivered ready for the home.
