Description

This is an antique clerk's desk chair. An English, beech and leather elbow seat, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920. Appealing example, with a tasteful office aesthetic and great colour. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Beech stocks present warm caramel hues and fine grain interest. Attractive British Racing Green leather finished with press stud trim. Amply cushioned in the traditional manner, for a fine seat. Dressed back rest with plump cushioning over a generously padded saddle. Seat height set at a desirably comfortable 48cm (19"). Serpentine arms enclose the seat, with swept supports. Fascinating cabriole front legs with scallop shell carvings to each knee. Swept rear legs with a distinctive, canted square section toe. This is a delightful antique clerk's desk chair, presenting great colour and craftsmanship. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home or office.
