Description

This is an Antique Oak Arts & Crafts Bureau Bookcase c1880-1900. It is raised on slab ends with shaped lower feet to the front and sides. There is a single fixed shelf with lower shelf also. The flap comes down to reveal pigeon holes. The upper glazed section has two removable or adjustable shelves. The bureau flap and upper cupboard come with their relevant keys. It is in one piece and doesn't come apart although it's not wildly heavy.
