Description

Large Australian Milk Opal & Silver Pendant c.1960. Lovely large Australian milk opal of approx. 12 carat. The opal is set in a silver frame and made in the workshop of the indigenous Australian people around the 1960's. The stone is not cut but polished in the shape as it was found. The large milk opal has a lovely blue/green shine which is in real situ much nicer than the photo's shows. For the indigenous people opals symbolise ancestral stories and spirituality to them. The pendant measures: H. 2 Inches (5cm) W. 0.75 Inches (2cm)
