Description

A superb and rare antique French Art Deco decanter set, designed by Louis Prodhon, Paris, Circa 1930 in date. It was the award-winning design at the 1937 Exposition Des Arts Decoratifs Paris. This beautiful antique three decanter tantalus was skillfully crafted in walnut and macassar with a stylish silver plated locking bar. It is fitted with three cut crystal square decanters with bulbous stoppers. It is a very decorative high quality piece which is also very practical and would make a lovely gift. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned and wax polished in our workshops. Dimensions in cm: Height 30 cm x Width 47 cm x Depth 16 cm. Dimensions in inches: Height 1 foot x Width 1 foot, 6 inches x Depth 6 inches. Art Deco or Deco, is an influential visual arts design style which first appeared in France during the 1920s, flourished internationally during the 30s and 40s. It is an eclectic style that combines traditional craft motifs with Machine Age imagery and materials. The style is often characterized by rich colours, bold geometric shapes, and lavish ornamentation. Deco emerged from the Interwar period when rapid industrialization was tr...
