Description

Elevate your space with this stunning pair of William IV rosewood armchairs, offered in impeccable showroom condition. These chairs are a true testament to fine craftsmanship and timeless elegance. Each chair has been meticulously reupholstered in a thick, luxurious leather with a classic buttoned backrest and seat, offering both comfort and sophistication. The leather has been hand-dyed using traditional techniques to achieve a rich, unique chestnut brown hue that complements the deep, warm tones of the rosewood frame. The beautifully carved rosewood frames are adorned with delicate tulip-shaped back supports and feature fluted legs, all resting on brass casters for ease of movement. These chairs combine aesthetic beauty with functionality, making them the perfect addition to a study, office, or as accent pieces in any elegant living space. With exceptional colour, supreme comfort, and flawless craftsmanship, this pair of armchairs is a rare find and a lasting investment in luxury and style.
