Description

This memorising Antique Opal and Diamond ring features a central 0.21ct oval Natural opal. It is surrounded by ten old mine-cut Diamonds set in stunning open work and buttercup settings, modelled in 18ct Yellow Gold. The gold work is also stunning and features two graduating rubies down each shoulder, adding a unique character and charm to the ring. The Diamonds sparkle and glisten from afar, totalling approximately 0.30ct, complimenting and reflecting the Opal beautifully. Opal is considered the birthstone for October and a stone of luck and communication. This quality ring would make an excellent addition to any collection.
