Description

Good clean Georgian mahogany and boxwood line strung serpentine shaped side table. Square tapered legs, single drawer which is pine lined with its original brass handles. The top is also serpentine shaped to the sides as well as the front. Really nice grained timber used on the top. The piece has been sympathetically re-polished sometime last century and there are a few old filled worm holes to the drawer front. Nice mellow colour. SIZE; 36" wide by 20" deep (max) by 28" high CIRCA; 1820
