Description

This charming Georgian mahogany secretaire cabinet bookcase is a beautiful example, offered in good condition. It comes in two separate pieces for ease of transport. The top section features a striking dentil cornice above two flame mahogany panelled doors. These open to reveal three height-adjustable shelves, perfect for displaying books or other cherished items. The base of the piece sits on bracket feet and boasts a secretaire drawer, which opens to reveal a well-organised interior with eight small drawers, a central cupboard with a working lock and key, and four pigeonhole storage compartments. The front fall of the secretaire opens to create a convenient writing surface. Below, there are three additional long drawers for extra storage, with brass oval handles and cockbeaded fronts.
