Description

This is a splendid large antique Victorian silver-plated Corinthian column table oil lamp now converted to electricity, Circa 1890 in date. This opulent antique table lamp features an elegant Corinthian Capital decorated with classical ornate foliage in the form of splendid acanthus leaves above a striking tapering and slender fluted shaft. It stands on a large and weighted stepped square base. Add an element of Greek Classical style to your home with this exquisite antique silver-plated table lamp. Condition: In excellent working condition having been beautifully cleaned and rewired, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 61 cm x Width 15 cm x Depth 15 cm Dimensions in inches: Height 2 foot x Width 6 inches x Depth 6 inches Corinthian capital It has been suggested that the foliage of the Greek Corinthian capital was based on the Acanthus spinosus, that of the Roman on the Acanthus mollis. The leaves are generally carved in two "ranks" or bands, like one leafy cup set within another. One of the most beautiful Corinthian capitals is that from the Tholos of Epidauros (400 BC); it illustrates the transition between the earlier Greek capital, a...
