Description

A fabulous Oak Dresser base of the most wonderful colour and patina. Having a boldly shaped apron standing between two cabriole legs and having turned back legs. The end panels are fielded and the three drawers are cross banded in fruitwood and the top is a single piece quarter sawn board of a great colour and surface. The period handles and escutcheons are replacements but are in keeping with the piece. A nice dresser base having a wonderful colour and in good condition.
