Description

A Victorian golden oak pedestal desk, circa 1870, showcasing timeless craftsmanship and elegant proportions. This desk features a green leather top with gold tooling, lending a touch of sophistication and durability to its surface. The twin pedestal design incorporates nine drawers, each adorned with turned wooden handles, offering ample storage and functional organisation. The golden oak wood exudes a warm patina, beautifully highlighting its rich grain. Resting on discreet castors, this desk is both practical and a refined addition to any classic or contemporary study.
