Description

An antique walnut breakfront bookcase featuring open shelving, marquetry boxwood inlay, and ornate brass mounts, circa 1880. The breakfront structure accentuates the central section, while decorative brass embellishments enhance each upright. The frieze is detailed with intricate floral marquetry and brass trim. Shelving is set within each section, offering ample storage and display space. The rich walnut veneer showcases striking grain patterns, adding depth and character to this elegant example of 19th-century craftsmanship.
