Description

A charming small antique drop-leaf table with elegant turned legs and a timeless mahogany finish. The compact design features two drop leaves that can be raised for added surface area, supported by beautifully turned gate-leg supports. Its petite size and intricate craftsmanship make it ideal as a side table or occasional piece in both traditional and eclectic interiors. The table rests on sturdy feet, two of which are fitted with small brass castors for easy mobility, adding a touch of practicality to its graceful vintage appeal.
