A superb and extremely rare Regency Period Rosewood and Brass Chiffonier surmounted by a full width shelf with a scrolling brass three-quarter gallery supported on scrolled shaped foliate details front supports above a three panel frieze with a central carved cartouche featuring a scalloped shell and oak leaves, the centre doors with brass grilles and silks flanked by bowed ends with four shelves each and flanked by cabled columns with foliate carved capitals, the centre doors opening on three sliding trays above three drawers retaining the original turned Rosewood knobs and the whole raised on shaped, turned bun feet. All the mouldings are either pea and bean or nulled and the whole is in amazing original condition. Circa 1815 Price: £9,750-00p. Height: 52", 132 cms, Width: 53 ½", 136 cms. Depth: 17 ¼", 47 cms. Note: With the execution of King Louis XVI in 1793, the French Revolution became a contest of ideologies between the conservative, royalist Kingdom of Great Britain and its allies and radical Republican France. Napoleon, who came to power in 1799, threatened invasion of Great Britain itself. This failed due to the inferiority of his navy, and in 1805, Lord Nel...
