Description

This is an unusual piece it is an Antique Victorian Oak Double School desk c1860-80. It was originally from Bromsgrove Private School that was founded in 1553. It was clearly made for a specific spot which I know nothing about. It is raised on brass and china castors with turned legs. The top has two flip up sections that house the original ink pens and ink wells. A really lovely but odd piece that would also make a good hall table. It is 184 cms long 55 cms deep 76.5 cms high leg space underneath is 63 cms
