Description

This elegant 20th-century antique tub chair is crafted from rich mahogany and stands on turned legs with original casters for ease of movement. The chair is upholstered in a striking red fabric, offering both comfort and style. The bottom back of the chair adds a subtle design detail, enhancing its overall aesthetic. In good condition and made with good quality materials, this tub chair is a timeless piece that would make a beautiful addition to any living space or study. Its classic design and sturdy construction ensure both durability and comfort, while the mahogany frame and rich red upholstery create a sophisticated, inviting atmosphere.
