

SA1122330

Antique 19th Century Mahogany Extending Dining Table - Triple Pedestal, Large 11' Fine Quality

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1122330*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

Antique 19th Century Large Plum Pudding Mahogany Extending Dining Table, Triple Pedestal, ~11' A fine quality, antique mahogany extending dining table, dating from the 19th Century, featuring a solid mahogany construction with a black ebonised line border. This elegant table sits on sturdy brass castors. The top is made from the most sought after plum pudding cut of mahogany. The table is strong, stable, and free from any loose joints or signs of woodworm. All components fit and stand properly. Tilt top mechanism to each of three pedestal plus two extension leaves. Dimensions: Maximum length: 329cm (272cm, 215cm or 144cm are achievable by removing leaves and or the central section. Width: 120cm Height: 73cm This table carries a rich history, bearing many generations' worth of age, knocks, and marks beneath a lustrous layer of polish and wax, resulting in a magnificent patina. The finish remains in good condition, with an appealing slight waviness to the top and sought after gun barrel pedestals. This large dining table is in very good antique condition, showing expected signs of age such as historic knocks, marks, repairs, and alterations. Stock No.: 8645 Guarantee...

Internal Ref: 8645

Seller Details

Prior and Willis

Kings Lynn Norfolk United Kingdom

Tel: 07866 705199

International Tel: +44 7866 705199