Description

This exquisite antique 20th-century bookcase, crafted by the renowned Maple & Co, showcases the finest craftsmanship and timeless design. Made from high-quality mahogany, the piece exudes elegance, standing gracefully on bracket feet with a beautifully astral glazed front, allowing books and decorative items to be displayed in style. The interior features three fully adjustable shelves, providing versatile storage options for books, collectibles, or treasured items. The exterior is meticulously detailed with stunning inlay and cross-banding throughout, highlighting the intricate workmanship that sets this bookcase apart. The rich mahogany grain and deep, warm colour add to its charm, making it a striking focal point in any setting. A brass handle adorns the front, complementing the bookcase's sophisticated aesthetic, while a working key allows for secure storage. The fine materials and expert craftsmanship ensure this piece remains a durable and cherished heirloom for years to come. Perfect for a classic, period-inspired, or traditional interior, this bookcase is a statement of refinement and quality. Whether placed in a library, study, living room, or office, it of...
