Description

An exceptional 17th-century English oak geometric chest of drawers, circa 1680. A wonderful warm rich patina. It features brass pear drop handles, intricate geometric mouldings on the drawer fronts, and robust oak panelled sides with thick oak drawer linings. Superb construction. The back of the chest preserves its original oak boards, secured with handmade nails, further attesting to its authenticity and quality. Dimensions: 39.5 inches width x 38 inches height x 21.5 inches depth. In very good antique condition, with expected signs of age and use.
