Description

A lovely oak side table with planked overhanging top and turned gun barrel legs joined by square stretchers standing on small bun feet. The table dates from the 18th century although it is likely that the top has been replaced at some point and the drawer has had some repairs to it over the years. The brass plate handles are also later additions. Nonetheless it is a very nice table and it has a lovely patina. It is in good condition and is strong and sturdy. There are signs of age and use, some surface marks and light knocks but no major damages and it displays well. It has been cleaned and given a light polish and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
