Description

An antique 19th-century smokers' bow armchair. This chair features a curved, turned spindle back with elegantly shaped arms and a solid elm saddle seat. It is raised on turned legs, supported by double 'H' stretcher supports for added stability. A classic example of 19th-century craftsmanship, combining both style and functionality. Item Ref; M-5851A . DIMENSIONS: Height - 80cm / Width - 68.5cm / Depth - 55cm / Seat Height - 44.5cm .

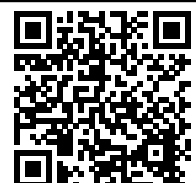

CONDITION REPORT: The armchair is in good antique condition overall, with expected signs of age. There is surface wear in places, including age-related marks and scratches throughout. The arms, back, and seat show some fading due to age and use. Additionally, there are marks on the legs and stretcher supports, all of which are shown in the photographs. These imperfections contribute to the chair's antique character and charm. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection. This ensures that every piece you purchase from us is ready to be seamlessly incorporated into your home. To provide you with a comprehensive understanding of the item's condition, we kindly request that you take a moment ...
