Description

A small mahogany tilt-top wine table dating from the early 19th Century. It has a rectangular top with cut-corners set on a turned support with tripod splayed legs. It is in good condition for its age and has a lovely rich colour and patina. There are signs of age and use, some old marks on the top and small knocks here and there and a few old repairs and splits to the base but no major damages and it is strong and sturdy. There are some minor signs of historic worm which has all been treated as a precaution. The table has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
