Description

An attractive antique early 20th-century oak hall wardrobe. The wardrobe features a moulded cornice and a single door with decorative carvings, opening to reveal a spacious interior with a hanging rail and two hooks. The sides are equipped with hat hooks above umbrella stands, each with metal trays for added practicality and neat decorative beading. It is raised on shaped bracket feet and boasts beautiful carved detailing throughout, making it a particularly pleasing example of craftsmanship. Item Ref; M-5780 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 188.5cm / Width - 105cm / Depth - 41.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: The wardrobe is in good antique condition overall, with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places, including age-related marks and scratches throughout the piece. The umbrella holders are missing some beading, and there is fading to the sides as well as the interior, which adds to the character of the piece. These details reflect the wardrobe's history and contribute to its antique charm. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection. This ensures that every piece you purchase from us is ready to be seamlessly incorporated...
