Description

A matching pair of antique Sterling Silver salt dishes. They are stylish and good quality with scrolling handles and ball feet. They come with matching shell shaped spoons with ball finials. Each piece is hallmarked for Birmingham, 1901, Thomas Hayes. The total weight of silver is approximately 79g. They are in good condition for their age and display well. The gilt linings have worn over time and there are some small surface marks and dinks here and there but no major damages. They have been lightly cleaned and polished and are ready for use. Approximate Measurements of Salt Dish Height : 2" / 5cm Width : 3 1/4" / 8cm Depth : 1 3/4" / 4.5cm Length of Spoon : 2 1/4" / 5.5cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
