Description

Description Watch: Tudor Royal 12856 Stock Number: CHW6032 Price: £950.00 This really is a pretty little watch, a beautiful dial that has aged naturally to give a wonderful patina. Dated to the pre 1969 the logo Tudor removed the Rose after this date). This is a Rolex made Tudor cased as many were by Dennison of the UK in 9ct gold. Small 9ct gold cast measuring 32mm the dial is an off white / cream colour. An elegant dress watch this is for sure. Gold coloured hands to match the numbered hour markers, the subsidiary dial at the bottom measures the seconds and does had a clear mark visible. Working well having passed through our workshop the watch runs at around+15 seconds per day with an amplitude of 286. Manual Wind. Fitted to a generic Dalena brown leather strap. Condition - Overall for a watch of over 50 years we would suggest in excellent condition throughout, will show signs of wear as would be expected and we have chosen to leave unpolished. Insured next day shipping - 12 Month Guarantee Included along with presentation pouch. Our View - Excellent value for classy classic small dress watch

Internal Ref: CHW6032
