Description

An Edwardian mantel clock timepiece, the satinwood case with a gilt brass handle over an ogee shaped top and with gilt brass pineapple finials to each corner, over a straight sided case with delicate boxwood inlay with bows and leaves, to a gilt brass bezel around a 3½" off-white dial with Arabic numerals and outer minute track with quarter markers in red and blue steel hands, and with a French eight day timepiece movement with a lever escapement, the whole raised on gilt brass bracket feet. English, with a French movement, circa 1900. Condition: Excellent, the clock is in very good condition with no damage or marks to the case, the dial is in excellent condition and the numerals are clear, and the gilt fittings retain the majority of their gilding. The movement has been fully serviced and overhauled and is in excellent working order. Overall the clock has a fine appearance with elegant proportions.
